

Your responses to the questions below will provide information for which I will use to design your marriage ceremony. If the Angels have something that needs to be said to each of you, it will be included in the appropriate place. A higher source knows what the couple needs to hear and my part is to be open to feel and write the information. If this resonates with you for creating this very special day, then we are a match and I am grateful to share in this creative time with you.

What I will need from you to assist in designing your ceremony: (remember we can change anything as you grow in this process)

- 1) How you met and was there a special connection felt by either of you at that time (elaborate please)?
 - 2) Any special events, words, deeds that exemplify your knowing that this person is the person with whom you are willing to share the rest of your life?
 - 3) What about yourself, first, then the other, makes you believe that marrying is 'right and timely'?
 - 4) Would you like to say something to one another prior to your vows? (i.e. – “thank your for agreeing to share this journey with me.”) Something from your hearts to be said to one another. (Just a suggestion .)
 - 5) Have you, together and separately, reflected on previous relationships (marriages if divorced) as to how you each contributed to the dissolution of those relationships and how you have grown and changed - resolved personal issues – so as to strengthen relating to one another now?
 - 6) How is your communication with yourself and each to the other? Has this changed through the time that you have known one another? How?
 - 7) What do you, emotionally and spiritually, bring to this marriage so that Qs 8 & 9 may develop?
 - 8) What pledges do you each intend to make to one another? They may be different pledges, for you are two separate individuals and you may wish to make different promises.
 - 9) How do you want this marriage to evolve and how do you, personally, plan / intend to participate in strengthening this marriage?
- There is also a 'nuts & bolts' form at www.sacredmountainceremonies.com that you may complete and press 'submit' to email it to me.

When you make a final decision as to whether you would like for me to 'minister' your wedding, I will send you an outline of the ceremony and some samples of vows to assist you if you wish to create your own; but only the two of you know what promises and pledges you desire to make to one another.

My fee is $350. This includes:

- 1) Phone and email consultations, meeting prior to the ceremony if need,
- 2) Writing of the ceremony,
- 3) Presiding as the minister at the assigned location and
- 4) Providing you with a written copy of the ceremony.

Please let me know if we may meet sometime prior to the ceremony and how I may serve you further in your decision making. Again, thank you for offering me this opportunity to follow my ministry of service.
